Rotkreuz, 8 October 2020

Markus Mahler becomes new Chairman of the Mobility Board of Directors

The new Chairman of the Board of Directors at Mobility is called Markus Mahler. The 48-year-old impresses with his strategic skill and digital expertise.

In Markus Mahler, Mobility is gaining a high-profile leader with a wide range of professional experience. He most recently held the position of CEO of brack.ch for six years and is a member of various boards, including Mahler & Co. AG and Clientis Bank Leerau. Mobility particularly values his digital experience in the platform economy towards which the mobility sector is increasingly moving. "I am fascinated by intelligent mobility solutions and am delighted to be a part of and shape the future with Mobility", explains the 48-year-old.

In addition to the election of Mahler to the Board of Directors, the Mobility Cooperative conference of delegates confirmed the existing memberships of Rolf Georg Schmid (deputy chairman), Sabine Kilgus, Arnd Bätzner and Carol Chisholm. Mahler has served as Chairman of the Cooperative since the Board of Directors was constituted at the end of September 2020 and succeeds Frank Boller, who has reached the maximum tenure of twelve years.

ABOUT MOBILITY

Mobility offers its 224'000 customers across Switzerland 3'120 vehicles at 1'530 stations. The cooperative provides return car-sharing across Switzerland, One-Way cars for one-way trips between cities and airports and Mobility-Go for free-floating in Basel and Geneva.
